

LEONARD & SANDY SARGENT EVST GRADUATE FELLOW

2009-10

Aaron Kindle

---

After graduating from the University of Montana with his M.S. degree, Aaron worked for 4-1/2 years as the Colorado field coordinator for National Trout Unlimited's Sportsmen's Conservation Project focusing on public lands issues.

Presently, Aaron is the western sportsmen manager for the National Wildlife Federation at their Rocky Mountain Regional Center. His work centers around sportsmen specific conservation efforts throughout the west including keeping public lands in public hands, responsible energy development, and developing NWF's sportsmen's voice.

