Colville, WA

$5,000

RICK HUBBARD SARGENT INNOVATION AWARD DESIGNEE

$2,500 — 1 Grant

The Rick Hubbard Sargent Innovation Award was established by his wife and close friends, in 2012, to honor the Cinnabar Foundation's founders son and former board member upon his passing that year. The purpose of the award is to recognize conservation work that pushes boundaries with the intent to expand understanding about more sustainable ways of being in relationship with our natural world. Specifically, this award pays tribute to innovative applications of new knowledge or new approaches on conservation, ecology and environmental issues that have the potential to radically change prevailing practices and transform existing paradigms.

The second RHS Innovation Award was made to the National Center for Appropriate Technology for a conference on "Soil Health Innovations."
