

LEONARD & SANDY SARGENT EVST GRADUATE FELLOW

1998-99

Keith Stockmann

Keith Stockmann has been an economist at the USDA Forest Service since 2000. He is also president of Western Forest Economists, a nonprofit group that focuses on forest economics, current research, issues and trends.

Keith holds a BA in economics from Colby College, and a MA in Environmental Studies and Ph.D. in Applied Wildland Economics from the University of Montana.

