Jennifer Hill-Hart

Jennifer Hill-Hart serves as executive director for the Alternative Energy Resources Organization (AERO), a nonprofit group that links people, sustainable agriculture and energy solutions.

Prior to working with AERO, Jennifer was a staff attorney for Montana Legal Services Association, which provides legal assistance to low-income people.

After receiving her MS in environmental studies with an emphasis on environmental justice and sustainable communities in Indian Country, she earned a JD and certificate in Indian Law from the University of Montana School of Law. Her academic and research interests include policy issues that create systemic change for people living in poverty, including: environmental justice (particularly around food and energy), sustainable and empowered communities, healthcare, education, and access to justice.
